

Do you know how other organisations expect their expenditure on consultancy to change in the next six months?

We do.

- 54% expect to spend more
- 26% expect no change
- 20% expect to spend less†

How do we know this?

Source's unparalleled access to many of the biggest consultancy-buying organisations means we are in the unique position of being able to report on market trends as seen by the people that matter most: clients. Our Quarterly Trends in Consultancy Buying report, which is available on a subscription-only basis, is based on an in-depth survey of buyers, drawn from organisations from a cross-range of sectors with a collective consultancy spend of about £2.5bn.

What else does this report offer?

Forecasts for the next six months by: size of consulting firm, type of consulting firm, type of consulting service;

Normal range of rates experienced by clients, by grade of consultant and type of consulting service;

Subscribe today

Annual subscription, 5 user licenses* plus one seminar for up to 10 people at your offices (tailored to discuss how the findings of these reports impact your organisation): £3,000 + VAT

Additional 5 user licenses: £2,000 + VAT

* All Source reports are controlled by a Digital Rights Management system

To request your free sample copy of December 2009's report, please email julie.cleasby@sourceforconsulting.com or telephone 0845 293 0992. Please note, this edition does not contain information on rates.

† Figures taken from Source's March 2010 edition of the Quarterly Trends in Consultancy Buying Report